But in being thought unnecessary to hold conventions, patriotic gentlemen who are willing to make so many and so great your decision. sacrifices for their country, nominate and announce themselves. In the present instance, as in every similar one. there is quite a number of gentlemen who have volunteered their lives and their honor for the public good: for the Senate, Wm. J. Houston, Esq., who served in the same capacity during the last session, and who, for a young and new member, took a very flattering position; Commons, officer. Wm. Ward, (member last session,) Zach. Smith, B. Monk Stanford, Esqs.; Sheriffalty, Col. Strickland, Thos. Carr. Bryant Southerland and Grady Outlaw, Esqs.

They all spoke at Williams' precinct a short time ago, where your correspondent had the privilege of hearing them. They were not diffident in announcing themselves as Democrats, and by an irresistible consequence, Ellis men;-a Democrat and an Ellis man through a verbal harmony being convertible terms. It was hoped by several of us who are fond of fun, that Mr. Houston, or one of the candidates for the Commons would meet with some opposition in the shape of a McRae-Distribution-Danville Connection candidate ; but and respectfully solicit your votes. a white Polar Bear does not thrive in the torrid regions, and no animal of so strange a hue as a distribution candidate, is to be found in this climate. In other words, no man can be found within the bounds of old Duplin, who is willing to trust his hopes and chances of preferment to so frail a policy as that comes to. So it was that we were destined to be disappointed in our wish for the agreeable excitement and animation of opposition.

Mr. Houston opens the way on these occasions, and makes a forcible, interesting speech: pleasant in manner and logical in the matter. FLOUR.—Since our review of Thursday last nothing of onsequence has transpired in this article in the way of sales. The meagre arrivals for a few weeks past has causrepresent the wholesale price. In filling small orders, highed the supply on market to become materially reduced, and we notice only a few parcels in receivers' hands: there is, Liquors, & gall, (domestic.) however, only a limited demand existing, as dealers do not seem disposed to operate at present quotations. Owing principally to the light receipts, holders have been enabled E. Hall. to obtain a slight advance on former rates, and a few small lots have changed hands at $5 624 a $5 75 for superfine, and $5 75 a $5 873 per bbl. for family. These figures cannot be Creek, to Petteway & Pritchett. considered as an index of the market, as a lot of any size could not be sold unless at lower rates. See table for quo-

REVIEW OF THE WILMINGTON MARKET, FOR THE WEEK ENDING JULY 29TH, 1858. TURPENTINE-The market continued at last Thursday's quotations up to Saturday, when it opened at a decline of 15 cents on yellow dip and 71 cents on hard, with sales at $3 25 for virgin, $2 85 for yellow dip, and $1 42\for hard, have great faith in it. I wish you to send me two bottles # 280 hs .- it has since ruled steady at above prices, with more by Mr. Post, the bearer of this. I don't know as any a moderate demand from shippers and distillers.
